

Now & Then: Being Jewish and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) in the UK

WORKSHEET 2: PREPARATION

PREDICTION: In what way responses might be different to the first group of pioneers?

Take brief notes while you are watching the second part of NOW AND THEN:

WORKSHEET 2: THE DOCUMENTARY

1. How do the four interviewees David, David Tim, Jacob and Alexandra describe the intersection of their LGBT and Jewish identities? What are the similarities and differences between the four of them?

2. Take note of any similarities and differences between this group and the group of older pioneers.

3. THE PRESENT: Is being LGBT and Jewish easier nowadays? In what way?

4. THE FUTURE: which diversity and inclusion issues do the participants suggest the Jewish and wider community needs to deal with?
